

If You Knew
By Steven W. Perry
If you knew where I am standing
If you could see the sights I see
If you could hear the angels singing
The songs they sing eternally
If you knew the One I'm holding
Could see the smile He smiles at me
If you knew where I am resting
You would not cry for me

I'm resting in the precious arms of Jesus
No other place would I rather be
So if you shed a tear,
Please don't shed it for me
If you knew where I am resting
You would not cry for me

I know you're confused about my leaving you so soon
But I'll be with you again
Maybe morning, night or noon
So I'll save a place for you
Right beside the crystal sea
If you knew where my mansion's standing
You would not cry for me.

THE OBITUARY

Herbert H. Jackson was born on January 24, 1928 in Henrico County, Virginia to the late Harrison B. Jackson and Leanna Vandervall Jackson. He was the youngest of nine children.

Herbert was educated in Henrico County Public Schools. He joined Quioccasin Baptist Church at an early age.

Herbert was employed by GRTC Transit Company and retired in July 1991. He worked with his good friend, Lilburn “Dickie” Reid for many years at GRTC Transit Company.

Herbert loved his family and all of his 31 first cousins. His nieces and nephews, other family members, and friends affectionately called him “Uncle Herbert.” He loved family gatherings and cookouts. You could find him sitting in a chair having conversations with his loved ones. He loved to have fun.

Herbert was preceded in death by his siblings Benjamin Brooks, Sr., Morton Brooks, Sr., Lee R. Jackson, Sr., Lucy Pemberton, Alfred Jackson, and Phillip Jackson, Sr.

Uncle Herbert leaves to cherish his memories 2 sisters Adelaide Warren and Mable Jackson. Twenty-one (21) nieces and nephews, 41 great nieces and nephews, 34+ great-great nieces and nephews, 1 great-great-great niece, 1 great-great-great nephew, first cousin, Anita Norrell Washington; other relatives and friends; caregiver and niece Alfreda Snead.
