COMMENTARY ON LUKE 2:8-14

On the Judean hillsides, the shepherds who were tending to their flocks saw a sight they would never forget as long as they lived. It was so spectacular and moving that they glorified and praised God for the things they saw (Luke 2:20). When God comes to us in whatever way He chooses to do so, our lives are impacted and changed forever.

It is interesting that the "shepherds were given the first announcement of the Savior." Because of their occupation of being shepherds, the sons of Jacob were not allowed to dwell near the Egyptians in Egypt, for shepherds were considered as unclean (Genesis 46:34). In fact, in the time setting of those shepherds being in the field and hearing the startling announcement of the angels about Christ, shepherds were considered on the lowest rung of the social ladder. Because of what they did, their work kept them away from the temple and the synagogue. In addition to that, it rendered them ceremonially unclean.

OH, WHAT A GOD OF GRACE WE SERVE! When the Lord gave the announcement of the birth of our Savior, he came to a shepherd's field, to a group of lowly shepherds, to tell them that the Savior would be born in the city of David, which is Bethlehem. To those ceremonially unclean men, the Lord announced the birth of the Christ child. The shepherds may not have deserved that visitation of God, but neither do we when God comes to us to reveal something about Himself.
